1. Introduction

- 1.1. Chuka Umunna MP welcomed attendees to the meeting. He spoke about his motivations for setting up the APPG and emphasised the need to de-toxify the debates around immigration and social security through talking about social integration.
- 1.2. The primary purpose of this inaugural meeting is to formalise the group and elect its officers.

2. Background to the APPG

- 2.1. Richard Bell, Public Affairs and Policy Manager at The Challenge, was invited to say a few words about The Challenge as an organisation and the rationale behind setting up an APPG on Social Integration. He spoke about social integration as an issue and detailed how it is designed into the programmes run by The Challenge. There is a clear opportunity for Parliament to take a leading role in moving the discussion on social integration forward, engaging with multiple stakeholder groups and with the wider public.
